

Once you retire, if you go back to work in a job with MainePERS coverage, there are limits on when you can return, how much you can earn and for how long you can work. The table below shows the limits that apply if you return to work with the same employer* after you are normal retirement age (usually 60, 62, or 65).

PLD Employees, Legislators and Judges
Standard
Required to Terminate Employment	Yes
May discuss return to work prior to retiring	Yes
Can go back to work	Retirement Date
Limit on time worked (school or calendar)	No
Limit on earnings	No
Restriction on type of Position	No
Contribute to MainePERS ¹	No
Earn Service Credit	No
Repayment of any disallowed retirement benefits	N/A

¹PLD Retirees: While you no longer pay retirement contributions, a separate payment is required during the period of re-employment. The rate is the greater of 5% or the aggregate unfunded actuarial liability (UAL) rate of the Plan. It is up to the employer and employee to determine who will pay this rate, but the employer remits the funds to MainePERS.
